Your company is interested in knowing how people use their mobile telephones: Here is the information that they have collected. You have been assigned to write a report based on the data presented in the chart.

In your report you should:

- Analyse the data.

- Give your opinion on the evolution of these figures over the last 5 years in your country.

TASK 2

You are planning to spend a weekend in London. Read these opinions on a hotel and decide whether the SOHO hotel would be a good option. Write about what you expect from hotel accommodation and support your decision.

The Soho Hotel

Phenomenal location, walking distance to Chinatown, Covent Garden, Oxford Street and theatre, but what's really nice about this hip hotel is the service is above impeccable from the doorman, to check in, to room service - all lovely. The bathrooms are larger than some hotel rooms in NYC, I hated to come out, and I adore the heated towel racks. At the risk of sounding old, the rooms are comfortable design, more so than other boutique hotels that try too hard to be hip with useless lighting tricks and less than comfortable amenities.

what an amazing hotel, this has to be THE place to stay in London. Comfortable, stylish and so very quiet for being right in the middle of Soho. What makes this hotel is the staff, friendly, smiley, nothing too much trouble. There is a really relaxed vibe, so unlike other stuffy hotels in this price range. this will now be my hotel of choice for London trips.

We booked the queen room for our anniversary and when we arrived we were upgraded to one of their self contained apartments. I did not know they had these as could not find them to book. It was great. We had a huge bathroom, sofa, dining table and fully functioning kitchen with own exit to street. It was a bit noisy at night but the bed was so comfy and soft. The apartments are well worth a stay.

Write between 150 and 200 words.
